ELCI Refund Policy

Application Fee ($150):

- Non-refundable.

Homestay Placement Fee ($200):

- The Homestay Placement Fee must be paid immediately after the F-1 student visa is approved and is non-refundable.
- The Homestay Application and the Homestay Placement Fee must both be submitted at least 4 weeks before the student arrives in the United States.
 - Important: Students who do not submit the Homestay Application and the Homestay Placement Fee at least 4 weeks in advance should plan to find and pay for their own accommodations (such as a hotel) for the first few weeks in the United States.

Homestay Fee:

- To obtain a full refund of unused homestay payments, a two-week notice is required. Students who give less than a two-week notice will receive a refund of all but two weeks.

Tuition:

- If an ELCI student is accepted to the target college or university on their study plan, there is a 100% refund for tuition after the university start date. Students who want to transfer to another school must have a Letter of Acceptance for the new school.
 - Note: If the student chooses not to attend the ELCI before the start date of the new school, there is no refund for tuition.
- The first 3 sessions (months) are non-refundable once the F-1 student has arrived in the United States.
- F-1 students leaving early receive a 65% refund for all tuition after their first three sessions.
- Non-F-1 students receive a 65% refund for all tuition after their first session.
- Refunds are mailed to the student's home address/agency or are wired to a designated bank (minus wire fees). No refunds are given before the student leaves.
- There are no refunds for students who are expelled for criminal activity or for breaking campus rules.

Cancellations:

- If a student cancels enrollment before arriving in the United States, they receive a 100% refund for their program minus the Application Fee and the Homestay Application Fee if applicable.
- If a student cancels enrollment after arriving in the United States and does not attend the ELCI or transfers to another school during the first week of classes, there is no refund for the tuition paid for the first three sessions (one term).

Other:

- Students receive a 100% refund for unused health insurance and book voucher money.
- There is a $25 bounced check fee.
