Our Teachers
Having a recognised diploma-level qualification in teaching English to speakers of other languages is a requirement for our year-round teachers. In addition to this, they will also have extensive teaching experience in a variety of professional areas. It is a minimum requirement that teachers have a recognised English language teaching qualification i.e Cambridge CELTA, Trinity College TESOL Certificate or equivalent. Teachers are also expected to have a degree level qualification.

Within our established long-term team, a number of teachers have Masters level qualifications, others have qualified teacher status (QTS) and some have specialist subject qualifications. Many of these teachers have positions of responsibility according to their areas of expertise.

Our Mission
Excellence in English language teaching, training and testing – putting the student first.

General English Programme

Our Intensive courses have been developed over many years of teaching experience. Innovative and communicative teaching methods are used and form the basis of our teaching. Our General English Programme offers a choice of courses for everyone who needs an improved level of English for academic, social or professional reasons.

Your choice of courses

When you enrol, you can select the number of lessons per week which suits you best, and the course duration which meets your needs. You can be sure that, whether you are a complete beginner, or whether you already have a good understanding of the language, there will be a class suitable for you.

Your class

You will study in a lively international atmosphere with others whose levels of English are similar to your own. You will be taught by a team of two or three teachers, who encourage participation and interaction between members of the group - and English is the only language you will use!

Your lessons

Your lessons will be interesting and effective, with a variety of activities to develop your confidence, knowledge and skills:

- presentation and practice of new language
- rapid development of oral fluency, accuracy and conversation skills
- efficient development of listening, reading and writing skills
- extension of vocabulary, structure and usage

If you follow a course of 25 lessons per week, you will have the additional benefit of language extension activities. If you follow a course of 30 lessons per week, you will have the benefit of language extension activities and the English for Success Programme.

Outside your scheduled timetable, you will be able to use the multi-media learning centre and private study facilities.

Examination Programme

At Anglo-Continental, we have a long successful history in preparing our students for English language examinations, which are widely accepted in academic and commercial circles throughout the world. We provide courses in preparation for highly regarded examinations such as the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) and the University of Cambridge First Certificate (FCE).

Courses are designed to develop the necessary skills relevant to the particular examination and to present and practise language appropriate to the students' needs. Timed practice tests provide an idea of what it is like to work under pressure during a real examination.

IELTS Intensive Preparation Course
Recognised worldwide, IELTS assesses the language ability of candidates who need to study or work where English is the language of communication. Our comprehensive course is intended for those who wish to benefit from intensive preparation for the IELTS test, which includes listening, speaking, reading and writing components. This full-time course provides 30 lessons per week, allowing participants the opportunity to maximise their development in each of the four language skills.

FCE Intensive Preparation Course
The First Certificate in English, an established Cambridge English Language Assessment examination, is for people who need to use everyday spoken and written English for work and study purposes. Our 30 lesson per week course focuses on all five parts of the exam, covering techniques such as how to approach typical tasks, with special guidance on writing.

Examination Practice plus Intensive Courses
These courses aim to raise your level of general English by providing 25 lessons per week of intensive English language study, combined with 5 lessons per week of practice for the examination of your choice: IELTS, TOEFL or CAE. Teachers will familiarise students with the format of the examination and will introduce strategies for dealing with typical questions.

Programme Features

- Examination preparation and practice for IELTS, FCE, CAE, TOEFL and OET

OET Preparation Programme

Recognised worldwide, the Occupational English Test (OET) assesses the language ability of healthcare professionals in order to help them prove they have the right level of English for work or study. It is also used to help healthcare organisations and regulators select healthcare professionals with the right level of English proficiency to deliver safe and high quality care in an English-speaking environment. OET is an alternative examination to IELTS with medical specific content.

We offer the following course to prepare medical and nursing candidates:

Occupational English Test (OET) Intensive Preparation Course
The intensive preparation course is designed to help trainees focus on the four language skills, listening, reading, writing and speaking, to help develop the level of proficiency required to successfully take the test. This 30 lesson per week course allows time to focus on improving overall language proficiency as well as the specific exam techniques required for the different tasks in the test.

Our Trainers
All teachers have completed the OET Teaching Preparation Programme.

OET Test Centre
Anglo-Continental is an OET test centre. Students preparing for the test can join external candidates in taking the examination at our campus in Bournemouth. For further information visit: https://www.occupationalenglishtest.org/test-information/test-dates-locations/

Scheduled Courses

Our short business and specialised courses cover the following areas:

- English for Business
- English for Finance

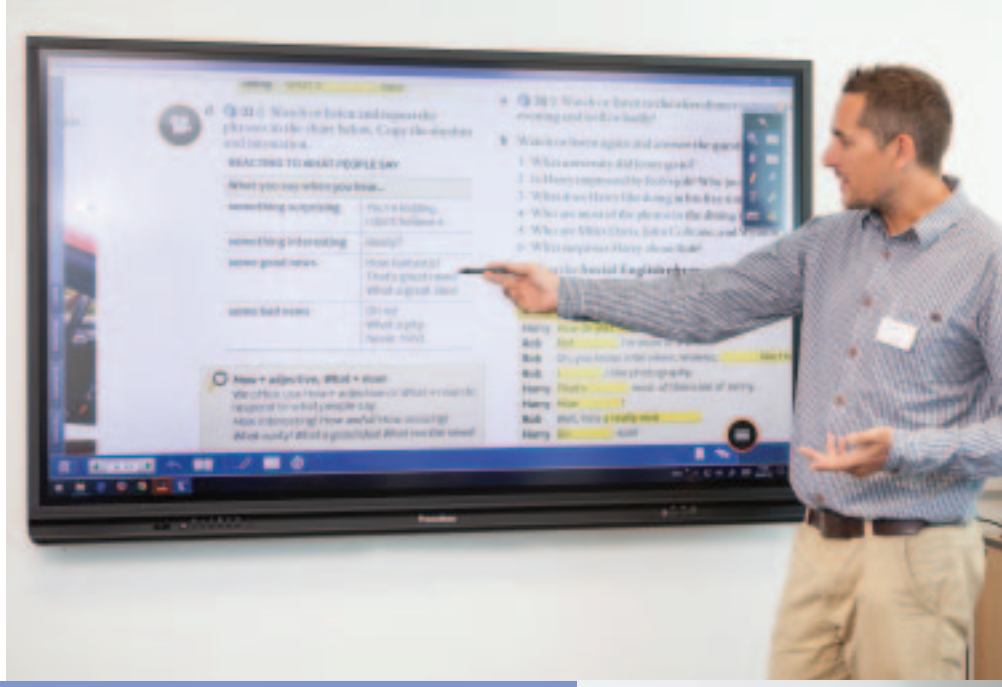
Business and Specialised Lessons

Your teachers, who have background knowledge of the subject of your choice, will use a wide variety of methods and materials, including authentic texts, documents and recorded material appropriate to your work. Role-play, student presentations, and guided and free discussion will improve your fluency and give you the realistic practice you need.



Additional Study

Homework (written assignments, preparation and revision) is an integral part of the course. We also recommend that some time should be devoted to additional study in the multi-media learning centre, with computers, internet access, TV, DVD, reference books/materials and private study facilities. Free wireless internet access is also available on campus.

Language Level for Entry

If you would like an indication of your English language level, you can take an online test before you enrol. This will be used as a guide and final acceptance is subject to our entry test held at the school. If you are not yet at the minimum level required, you will be transferred to the General English Programme.

Pre-Training Assessment

Final acceptance on the course is subject to our pre-training assessment. This is an assessment of the suitability of the course according to the background and qualifications of the client.

Club 50+ Programme

More and more people in their fifties, sixties and beyond appreciate the attraction of a short, well-organised study programme - especially when it is combined with visiting and exploring new destinations. If you are fifty or over, this programme offers you the ideal opportunity to visit England for a stimulating and productive holiday.

Your classes

- You will study in a class where the minimum age is fifty. There is no upper age limit.
- The classroom approach is to create an informal atmosphere for purposeful learning, conducted at a pace suitable for those who may not have been in a classroom for many years.
- Our friendly and approachable teachers will make the classes interesting and enjoyable and will use modern teaching methods and materials to build your confidence in speaking English.
- Group activities will be arranged to improve your comprehension and communication skills, such as guided and free conversation practice, role play and discussion of aspects of British and international life, customs and culture.
- Learn in an international environment and make friends with people from many other countries.
- Free access to the multi-media learning centre.

Excursions, leisure activities and walks through history and literature

Outside the classroom, you will have the benefit of guided excursions to places of historical and cultural interest and of carefully arranged leisure activities. You will also have time for sightseeing and shopping on your own or with your new friends from the school. If you have selected the walks through history and literature, a number of guided hikes will take you on a special journey through time and countryside.

Your accommodation

We normally provide accommodation with selected homestay families so that you will have no worries about your welfare and your meals. If you prefer to be independent, we can recommend alternative accommodation such as hotels or guest houses to meet your needs.

IELTS Preparation Vacation Programme

At Anglo-Continental, we have a long successful history in preparing our students for English language examinations. The IELTS Preparation Vacation Course will prepare students for the highly regarded International English Language Testing System (IELTS) examination.

The course is designed to develop the necessary skills relevant to the particular to the IELTS examination and to present and practise language appropriate to the students' needs. Timed practice tests provide an idea of what it is like to work under pressure during a real examination.

IELTS Preparation Courses

Recognised worldwide, IELTS assesses the language ability of candidates who need to study or work where English is the language of communication. Our IELTS Preparation Vacation Courses are intended for those who wish to benefit from preparation for the IELTS test, which includes listening, speaking, reading and writing components.

The courses aim to raise the students level of general English by providing 20 or 25 lessons per week of intensive English language study, combined with 5 lessons per week of practice for the IELTS examination. Teachers will familiarise students with the format of the examination and will introduce strategies for dealing with typical questions.

Homework

Homework forms an integral part of the course.

Excursions, Sports and Leisure Activities

A variety of excursions, sports and leisure activities are a key part of this programme. The excursions and activities are carefully chosen to support continuous language development and to encourage students to practise their English skills outside of the classroom with other international students.

Conditions of enrolment

All enrolments are subject to these conditions, which become legally binding on confirmation of acceptance by Anglo-Continental, and to the age limitations and arrangements specified in Anglo-Continental's official publications.

The enrolled student intends and is able to follow and complete the course of study at Anglo-Continental and declares that he/she shall abide by all current UK laws and leave the United Kingdom at the end of his/her studies.

Anglo-Continental reserves the right to withhold confirmation of an enrolment, at its discretion, if such action is deemed necessary in the interests of the student or the school or if an incorrect declaration has been made.

Fees

The fees for courses and accommodation are valid from 1 January to 31 December each year. The fees for the following year are normally published in July/August.

The fees must be received in full by Anglo-Continental no later than four weeks before course commencement, otherwise Anglo-Continental reserves the right to cancel, without notice, the course, accommodation and all other services. Course fees are calculated in complete weeks, and any part of a week is counted as a full week.

- services or facilities included in the fees and not used;
- late entry to or absence or early departure from a course without formal curtailment;
- lessons replaced by testing, class allocation procedures or the sightseeing tour on course entry dates;

You must ensure that all details on your confirmation documents issued by Anglo-Continental are correct before you apply for your visa. Anglo-Continental cannot be held liable for any errors that occur during the visa application process. It is also your responsibility to continue to maintain the correct immigration status to study at Anglo-Continental for the duration of your course(s). Failure to do so may lead to termination of your studies without refund or compensation.

Anglo-Continental publishes regulations to ensure that the courses operate smoothly. Acceptance of and compliance with these regulations, and with English law, are contractual obligations on the part of the student or the parent, guardian or other person arranging the student's enrolment with Anglo-Continental where the student is under 18. The school regulations are available online:

In the absence of such notice, or if less than four weeks' notice is received (no less than 14 days for online enrolments):

- in the case of postponement, Anglo-Continental reserves the right to levy a charge to cover administration and accommodation costs incurred on the student's behalf;

If a course of more than eight weeks' duration is curtailed by the student, four weeks' notice must be given to the school. If no notice or insufficient notice is given, course fees must be paid in lieu of notice together with any accommodation charges due. In all cases, course fees must be paid for a minimum of eight weeks.

If a course of eight weeks' duration or less is curtailed, no refund of course fees can be given. Students must have personal insurance against inability to attend or continue a course for medical or compassionate reasons (see 'liability and insurance').

If, after commencement of a course, the student wishes to change to a course of a lower specification, two weeks' notice must be given to the school. If approved, the change must be made on a scheduled entry date for the new course.

Any refund due will be in the form of a credit towards any required extension of the amended course or towards any subsequent course with Anglo-Continental during the twelve months following the end of the amended course. The credit is not transferable to any other person and no cash refund can be given.

Incorrect declaration

Anglo-Continental reserves the right to withdraw a student from the course if an incorrect declaration has been made or if information regarding a student's ability to participate in the course has not fully, or partially, been disclosed to us before course commencement. In this case, no refund can be made.

Failing this, accommodation fees are payable in lieu of notice. An administrative charge of £60 will be made for each request to change homestay family accommodation. Accommodation fees continue to be payable for any periods of absence during the course.

Accommodation during school holidays

If you are attending a course which continues after the school holiday, 24 December 2022 to 2 January 2023, homestay accommodation will be upgraded to full board during the holiday, at a supplement of £ 63 per week. This will be automatically reserved and invoiced. If you do not require this accommodation, you must inform us at least 4 weeks before the holiday period and we will arrange a full refund.

UK visa requirements

If you are unsure whether you will need a visa to study in the UK, visit the Home Office website at: www.gov.uk/visas-immigration
You may also wish to consult your nearest British Embassy or Consulate.

If you require a visa in order to study in the UK, we strongly recommend that you apply for your course as early as possible as the application procedure may take several weeks to complete. Before issuing a visa letter, Anglo-Continental must be in receipt of a deposit of £ 500 (deductible when you pay your fees) or the full amount of the fees due.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you apply for the correct type of visa to allow you to study at Anglo-Continental for the entire period of your course(s). You must ensure that all details on your confirmation documents issued by Anglo-Continental are correct before you apply for your visa. Anglo-Continental cannot be held liable for any errors that occur during the visa application process. It is also your responsibility to continue to maintain the correct immigration status to study at Anglo-Continental for the duration of your course(s). Failure to do so may lead to termination of your studies without refund or compensation.

We strongly recommend that you send a scanned copy of your visa to us to check prior to your departure to the UK.

Refund guarantee

Should your application for a visa be refused, we will refund any published course fees paid by you (after deduction of an administration charge of £ 100) provided that you send us a copy of the letter of refusal before the intended start date of your course.

Any additional charges for services provided by a third party (such as hotel accommodation, flat rental and courier services) are not covered by this guarantee.

Schengen visa

If you require a visa to travel to the UK and you intend to travel within Europe during your stay, it is advisable that you also obtain a Schengen visa before you travel to the UK. The Schengen visitor visa has made travelling between its 26 European member countries much easier. For further information, visit the Schengen visa website at www.schengenvisa.cc
