WHO WE ARE

Manhattan Language has been offering unique and rewarding learning experiences to its students since the year 2000. Our excellent teachers and staff make us a one-of-a-kind school.

All of our teachers are native speakers with professional teaching credentials and many years of experience in the ESL field. Many of them have traveled the world teaching English. Outside of the classrooms, many of them are writers, actors, comedians and musicians, and this shows in their creative approach to teaching English.

Our staff makes sure that students have the best possible experience in New York from day one and support through orientations, counseling, and fun activities around the city.

Anthony

I hear from students in the international community that Manhattan Language is 'serious, friendly, and creative' in its commitment to language learning, and I totally agree.

Larry

Laughter and learning should go together. There is never a dull moment in my classroom.

Gerald

I hope that what my students experience in my class is more than just learning English. It's making connections from people and cultures from around the world, and that is still what gets me out of bed in the morning.

Susie

I have been teaching English for most of my life- 35 years! I love teaching simply because I'm helping people. Remember students, work hard and good things will happen.

John

There's no better feeling than seeing a student's English ability and comfort level grow over time. I love my job!
