Semester at CSUN (SAC) is a study-abroad program that enables international students to enroll in university classes with CSUN students for the fall and spring semesters. SAC students have dedicated program advisors to welcome them at orientation and provide academic and student life support throughout the experience.

Semester at CSUN gives you:

- · Access to university classes in a variety of departments
- · Academic credits that transfer to your home university
- · Academic advisement and registration assistance
- · An American university experience

Why CSUN:

- CSUN is one of the largest public universities in California.
- CSUN has decades of experience hosting international students.
- SAC students can access campus facilities and services including: the fitness center, health center, library, tutoring services, student clubs and intramural sports.
