Why EF

Kick-start your global future on an EF Academic Year Abroad program that equips you with lasting fluency and experiences to treasure.

Become a global citizen

EF shapes confidence in speaking the language by giving you the authentic experience. Discover a new country through local eyes and build a global network of friends from over 100 different nations. With seasoned EF Activity Managers running daily activities and excursions, you'll gain long-term exposure to local culture, customs and native speakers. By engaging with diverse perspectives and fostering cross-cultural understanding, you have the opportunity to create a ripple effect of change and make an impact on the world.

Join the Class of 2025

Build friendships across 100+ nations in our inclusive student community with shared events and activities. These friendships will transform your study experience and last for life. The program concludes with a graduation ceremony to showcase the academic achievements and celebrate the Class of 2025's transformative year abroad.

Personalize your year

Achieve complete language fluency and full cultural immersion on a personalized program. Choose your favorite subjects, join group activities, and benefit from a unique and personal learning experience, all while acquiring the skills to stand out in job and university applications.

Focus your future

Our programs include Special Interest Classes (SPINs) and offer the opportunity for internships or volunteer experiences. Gain industry-specific knowledge with recognized certificates and Advanced Diplomas to enhance your employability.

Enhance your learning

The EF Method integrates communication-based classroom learning and experienced teachers to enhance language and life skills, like critical thinking, creativity, cultural awareness, problem-solving & more. Benefit from specialized course books, online lessons, and portfolio projects showcasing your development.

Accelerate your progress

Students receive a one-on-one monthly academic tutorial with a teacher to discuss academic progress and devise their study plan. Additionally, you will benefit from term reports, and personalized support sessions to assist you further in your academic journey.

Get personalized support

We help students every step of the way, from start to finish. With EF Mentorship, each student is paired with an experienced EF Staff member for advice on adjusting to life in a new host country. EF Study Buddies, senior students, further support newcomers in settling in.

Our commitment to student safety and wellbeing

The safety and wellbeing of our students is our number one priority. We have been welcoming students to our global campuses since 1965 and are expertly equipped to support them across their journeys abroad. Our experienced EF Staff are available 24/7 to support students with any matter that may come up during their studies.

“I want to become fluent because I'm into acting and need to improve my skills with English scripts. Another reason is my future career as a pilot. And, of course, it'll make traveling a lot easier.”

Max Goerke from Germany, EF Auckland

We fundamentally believe that education is the key to sustainable solutions. Join us in our mission of making a difference!

Hello Zero

We're committed to bringing sustainability to the heart of EF, continually working to make tangible and meaningful reductions in our environmental footprint. In 2022, we partnered with myclimate, a leading organization in carbon accounting and voluntary climate protection, to find effective strategies to reduce emissions across our operations. We are also investing in reforestation efforts that protect vulnerable ecosystems and support local communities.

Green initiatives in our campuses and offices

EF campuses and offices are vital parts of our commitment, as well as collaborating with suppliers aligned with our goals. Our dedicated EF Green Teams coordinate global activities engaging staff and students in environmental stewardship, from clean-ups in urban areas, parks, beaches, and rivers to community-driven projects. As part of our ongoing efforts, we prioritize initiatives like the distribution of reusable water bottles to minimize single-use plastic. We also promote education about sustainability. To this end, we've introduced a new Special Interest Class (SPIN) focused on Sustainability & Social Impact.

Supporting humanitarian relief

We've partnered with Médecins Sans Frontières (Doctors Without Borders) with the goal of providing support in both fortifying long-term medical relief efforts and amplifying the impact of emergency first-response during crises. Through our collaboration we aim to direct aid where it is needed most, supporting medical education and delivering rapid relief in critical areas around the globe. Our partnership contributes to funding training for frontline healthcare workers through the MSF Academy for Healthcare, as well as enabling immediate medical response through the MSF Emergency Fund.

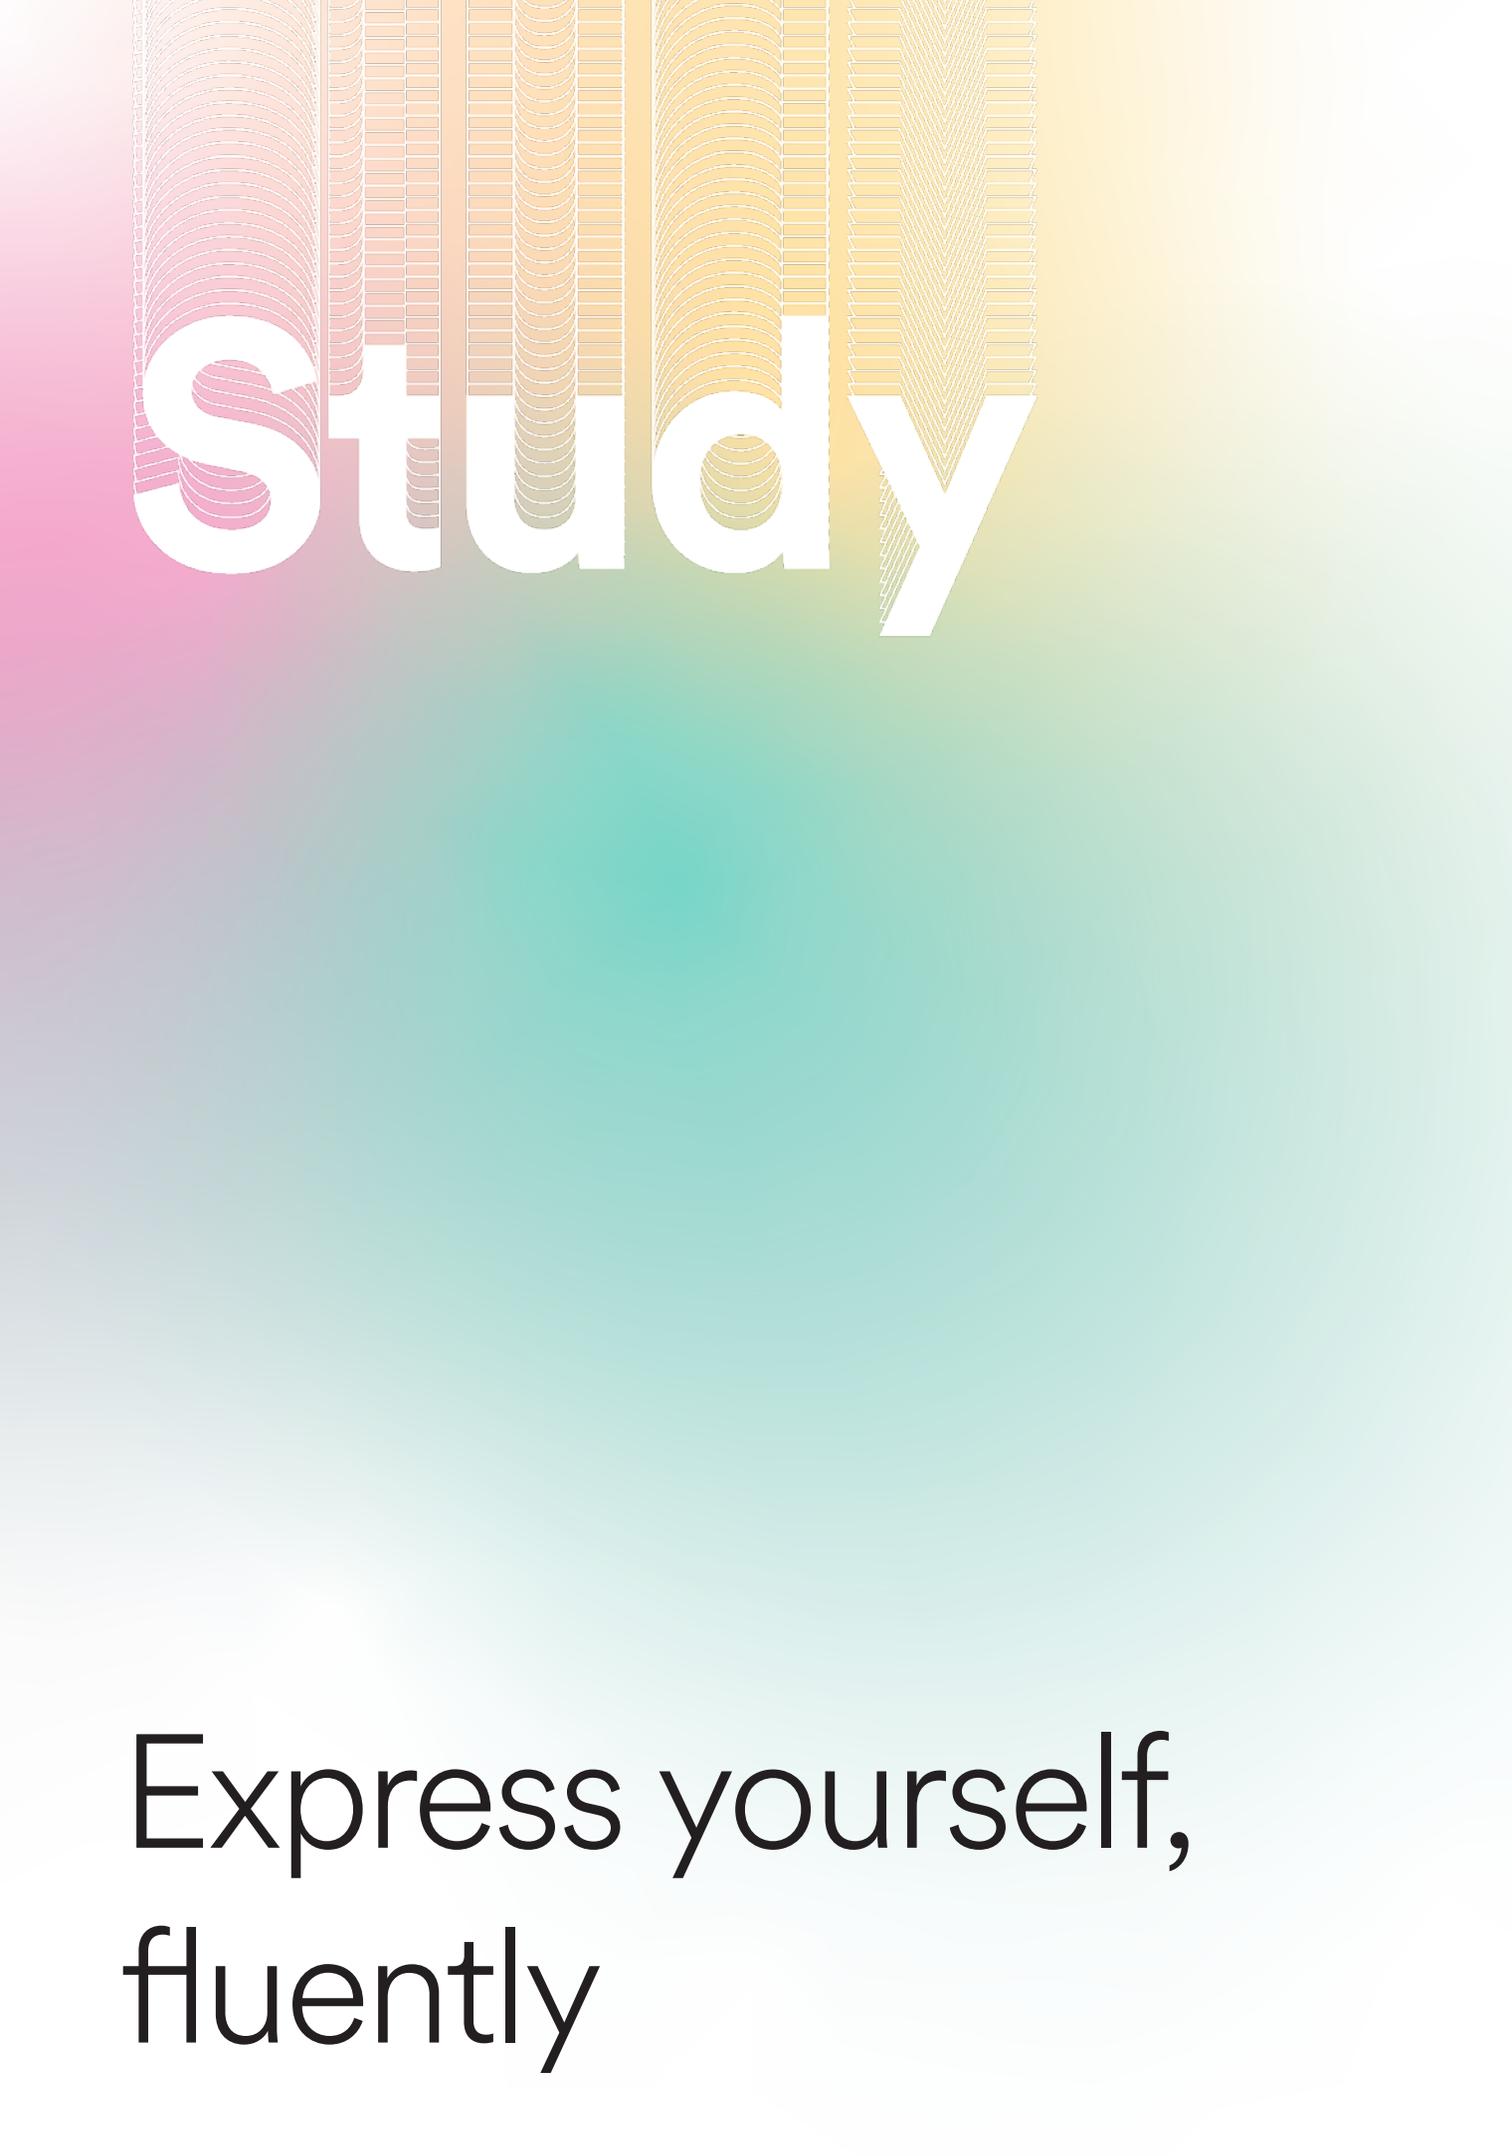

We've planted 9 million trees in Kenya, Madagascar, Mozambique with our first partner, Eden Reforestation Projects. Since 2024 we've partnered with WeForest to grow 3 million trees and regenerate 1,500 hectares of land while supporting local communities and wildlife conservation efforts in Tanzania.

“I went on an Academic Year Abroad to become fluent in English and pass the Cambridge English exam. This experience really helped me to decide what I want for my future, and discover new things while exploring the world.”

Raphael Glöckler from Switzerland, EF Miami Beach

Our academic method

Become fluent with EF's innovative and personalized method.

The EF Method

Our learning system is based on a simple principle: the more we personalize your program around your unique goals and needs, the faster you learn. With the EF Method, lasting language skills are guaranteed – no matter your starting level or native language. Thanks to the combination of experienced teachers, interactive class time, technology-assisted practice, skill-boosting Project sessions, and real-life immersion, you'll make maximum progress during your time abroad.

Life Skills

We go beyond traditional language learning, incorporating essential life skills into our curriculum. Our course books integrate practical, relevant real-world tasks for students to apply valuable skills like effective communication, critical thinking, and resilience. Our engaging approach includes activities, discussions, and exercises that enhance language abilities while fostering confidence and competence.

Teaching tools and more

In addition to our methodology, we also develop our own curricula, instructional methods, study materials, exciting culture- and academic-based lectures, and online applications. This ensures the content of your course is always fully integrated – in the classroom, in your study material, and online.

Our complete learning experience

Teacher-led instruction

Classes are led by certified teachers who ensure you gain the confidence and skills to express yourself in a natural way. You'll learn local phrases as well as important grammar and pronunciation.

Communication classes

You'll take part in discussions, games, and simulations with teachers and students to quickly improve your spoken skills, fostering participation and active engagement.

Interactive lessons

We combine teacher led, classroom-based lessons with digitally enhanced learning through EF Campus Learning, which has been developed exclusively by us. It forms an integral part of our curriculum and can be conducted anywhere. Take part in EF Immersion Challenges and accelerate your progress outside the classroom and school with a range of interactive tasks in places such as art galleries, cafes, museums and more.

Personalized study options

Every program features Special Interest Classes (SPINs), which allow you to personalize your program to meet your own career and academic goals. At the start of every term, you'll choose a range of academic and vocational SPINs that match your interests and boost your fluency across four key categories: Language Focus, Exam and Academic Preparation, Culture and Arts, and Professional Development.

Inspiring lectures

Attend a motivating lecture each week on different topics to develop your language listening and comprehension skills. Held by teachers as well as guest speakers, these may be held both online and offline – depending on the destination.

Final project

During the final term, students develop their teamwork and communication skills by working on a subject they're passionate about. They'll build on this project during weekly sessions, developing nuanced analytical and linguistic skills invaluable for future employment or higher education. You'll finish with a completed project that you can showcase whether for future job opportunities or university applications.

The EF Research Network

Exploring the Future of Language Learning

We are working with researchers from the University of Cambridge to fundamentally improve how students learn.

The network addresses a broad range of disciplines, including linguistics, pedagogy, educational technology, language assessment, and cultural immersion.

Together, we invest in research to improve the future of language learning, teaching, and cross-cultural understanding.

Academic Progress Chart

Advance one EF course level every six weeks.

You'll advance one English course level every six weeks when you attend all your classes and complete every assignment, and you may move more quickly depending on your progression. Our method will guarantee that you make maximum progress – otherwise, you'll study for free until you do.

Each stage in the Common European Framework of Reference, published by the Council of Europe is divided into 2 or 3 EF course levels. This graph indicates the average rate of progress and is intended as a guide only.

Proof of your success

Measure your language level at any time, then return home with a portfolio of recognized certificates showcasing your achievements.

Built for success

The EF Standard English Test (EF SET) was developed by our team of experts to match the reliability and accuracy of TOEFL and IELTS – so, you can confidently prove your fluency to university admissions and employers. And, with over 30 million test takers worldwide since 2016, the EF SET provides accurate results for everyone, no matter your English ability.

From start to finish

You'll measure your language skills before your program begins to ensure you're placed in the right classes and before your graduation to document how far you've come with the EF SET Certificate of Achievement.

Tailored to you

EF SET is the first standardized English test whose content responds to whatever language proficiency you demonstrate as it unfolds – for the most precise results possible.

Immediate results

You'll receive a comprehensive analysis of where your language skills are according to the Common European Framework of Reference as soon as you've answered the final question.

A full evaluation

EF SET scores correspond with TOEFL and IELTS, and your results include a detailed comparison to both of these proficiency exams.

Defining the future

The results of completed tests are analyzed by experts and used to improve our teaching materials so you can learn in the best way possible.

A carefully crafted learning journey

Unlock your potential with our transformative learning journey, designed by educational and linguistic experts. Begin a self-discovery adventure, achieving language and cultural fluency that will empower you to thrive.

Each term builds upon the previous one, guiding you on a path to academic success. Fun activities and trips foster opportunities to expand your network with fellow students and the local community, while personalized guidance ensures continuous growth and support. Your journey concludes with an innovative final project.

Term 1

Build a strong language foundation

During your initial term, the primary emphasis will be on language acquisition. You'll start immersing yourself in your chosen language through interactive classes and Special Interest Classes (SPINs), where you'll develop your grammar and vocabulary and start your work towards proficiency in the four essential language skills: speaking, listening, writing, and reading.

Sparking your growth journey

Explore your new home country through diverse activities, soaking in the culture and practicing language beyond the classroom. Kick-off your journey with classes focused on wellbeing, designed to help you feel at home abroad. Explore opportunities to join or create student clubs aligned with your interests. Benefit from our EF Mentorship program, guiding you to achieve personal and professional goals.

Term 2

Develop essential life skills

In the second term, you'll have the chance to fine-tune your language skills by selecting SPINs to focus your studies and align with your passions. Develop and apply crucial life skills including effective communication, creative and critical thinking, cultural awareness, and resilience – key elements for success in today's world.

Explore and connect to build your future

Continue engaging in student clubs like drama, sports, cooking, and film. Interact with the local community through events, volunteer projects, and cultural exchanges. Forge meaningful connections and dive into local life to not only broaden linguistic skills and cultural competence but also lay the groundwork for personal growth and professional development. Connecting with diverse communities [and joining various activities offer valuable experiences and insights that will enhance your CV.

Term 3

Inspire change with your final project

As you enter the final term, you'll reach the culmination of your journey. Keep sharpening your language skills in classes, demonstrating the proficiency and problem-solving skills you've acquired. You can choose to work individually or collaborate with classmates on a final project, using a problem-solving approach that encourages innovative solutions.

Reach fluency, and celebrate your achievements

Strengthen your portfolio with practical experience aligned with your interests. Sharpen professional skills through networking events and business cases. Broaden your network through volunteering and social initiatives. These hands-on experiences shape your future and create a positive impact. Celebrate your achievements at graduation, embracing fluency and newfound self-confidence, empowering you for future success.

Boost your CV

EF's Advanced Diploma Programs combine long-term English studies with a curriculum in a specific academic or career-related area. At the end of your three-term program, you'll receive an EF Advanced Diploma, while on a two-term program you'll receive an EF Advanced Certificate. Additionally, Advanced Diploma in Business is officially recognized by Hult International Business School.

Unique career-specific curriculum

EF has developed a unique curriculum for each EF Advanced Diploma Program using materials from our industry associates and academic experts. You'll develop your language skills while exploring areas on your career path.

High-level instruction

Our EF Advanced Diploma Programs are geared towards intermediate and high-level students who wish to make maximum progress. Your English skills will improve while you prepare for a career where specialized language knowledge gives you the edge to succeed.

Professional experience

An important part of your program is an internship or volunteer experience. An EF Internship/Volunteer Coordinator at your school will place you in an industry-related position, ensuring you'll gain an insight into the corporate world while putting your new language skills into practice. Total tuition time is 21 hours and 20 minutes per week.

Explore the world while gaining fluency

Experience the ultimate adventure of traveling to two or three destinations as you learn one language. From a small town to a big city, from skiing the slopes to surfing the waves, or just following the sun from destination to destination – there are so many possibilities.

First, decide which language you want to learn – choose from English, French, Spanish or German – and at what intensity: select from General or Intensive. Then, determine which two or three destinations you would like to go to, spending one term in each. You can choose from any of our English-, French-, Spanish- or German-speaking schools around the world. You can also choose to experience the Canadian way of life across the East and West Coast, exploring 2 different campuses.

Total tuition time is 17 hours and 20 minutes per week for General and 21 hours and 20 minutes per week for Intensive.

of 40 mins per week

Level
Upper Intermediate / Advanced

Length
2 terms / 3 terms / 4 terms

Start dates
Sep / Jan / Apr / Jun

Guaranteed university
placement

Gain the skills to succeed

Our EF University Foundation Program prepares you thoroughly for the challenges of higher education. This 2-, 3- or 4-term program bridges the gap between your previous education and what is expected at your chosen international university. A 2-term fast-track option is available in destinations worldwide for eligible students.

Perfect your language skills

You'll also benefit from free language testing to help determine your language proficiency. For students whose language abilities are not yet strong enough, we offer an additional study program, the EF Language Preparation Program. This will help you establish a strong foundation of fluency and meet the enrolment requirements of the EF University Foundation Program.

Specialized coursework

You'll learn essential study skills such as essay writing, critical thinking and group work as well as prepare for and take the necessary proficiency exams required for admission including IELTS and TOEFL. It will also provide you with an overview of local customs and educational systems. You can also specialize your studies with academic coursework in subjects from International Communications to Art, Science, Engineering and more.

Guaranteed placement

Students who successfully complete our program are guaranteed admission to one of our 230 partner institutions in the UK, Ireland, USA, Canada, Australia, Germany and France. To help you succeed, a dedicated University Pathway Advisor will advise you on the university application process, including finding suitable degree programs, visiting universities and helping with application materials and deadlines.

Our prestigious partner universities

Our strong relationships with universities and graduate schools around the world provide you with the widest possible choice of options. The proof is in our results – 100% of our successful alumni have gained preferred entry into one of our partner universities, or have earned places at other prestigious universities including the University of Oxford, University of Cambridge, London School of Economics and Political Science, Harvard University, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the University of Sydney.

Fast-track your studies as an undergraduate

How it works

Complete an EF University Preparation Abroad Program and put yourself on a fast-track to academic success by reducing your future study time at our exclusive partner institution, Hult International Business School.

Assistance you can rely on

EF's Staff offer support throughout, including during your admission process to Hult, which, subject to requirements, can guarantee you financial aid during your studies.

Graduates

Graduates of an EF University Foundation Program will earn direct placement on a three-year Bachelor of Business Administration degree at Hult International Business School. You'll progress directly, without needing to take an IELTS or TOEFL test, and be fully prepared to apply your English in an academic environment.

Postgraduates

Graduates of an EF University Pre-Master's Program will gain direct access onto a Master's degree at Hult International Business School, subject to the Pathway Program final test requirements. Set your expectations high and prepare yourself for a top ranked degree program.

EF Pre-Master's & Pre-MBA Program

Prepare for postgraduate study at an international university.

2 terms / 3 terms / 4 terms

Start dates
Sep / Jan / Apr / Jun

Enhance your application

The EF Pre-Master's and Pre-MBA Programs are ideal for students who lack the language skills to enter a postgraduate degree at an international university. These programs will provide you with all the linguistic, academic study and specific skills necessary for postgraduate studies.

Personalized program

The EF Pre-Master's and Pre-MBA Programs are flexible in length so that you can study for either 2, 3 or 4 terms. You'll be able to take specialized module classes in an academic area of your choice, such as International Business, Marketing, Law and Social Sciences, to help prepare you for your postgraduate degree. Each specialized class is designed to engage you with a topic that interests you, as well as helping you to build the necessary language, research and study skills you will need to succeed in a demanding academic environment. We will also help prepare you for the necessary tests required for admission, such as IELTS, TOEFL, GMAT and GRE.

Specialist staff support to help you succeed

As part of your program, a University Pathway Advisor will be assigned to provide support in researching, selecting and applying for postgraduate programs. Throughout the duration of your EF program, this specialist staff member will be available to offer continuing support and counseling.

Proceed to your choice of university

We can provide you with guaranteed acceptance to one of our 230 partner universities offering Master's or MBA degrees, once you successfully complete your program. Not only do we give you all the skills you need, but we also assist you with your application to apply to virtually any Master's or MBA degree in your country of study.

Celebrate your success with friends and peers at your EF graduation

The word "Live" is rendered in a white, sans-serif font. The letters are partially filled with intricate, architectural patterns. The 'L' features a grid of horizontal lines. The 'i' has a solid white dot and a vertical line. The 'v' is filled with a series of parallel, slightly curved lines that create a sense of depth and movement. The 'e' is filled with a series of concentric, curved lines. The background of the top half of the image is a soft, multi-colored gradient transitioning from green on the left to yellow and orange on the right.

Designed to inspire

Our campuses around the globe are designed to provide the ideal learning environment for our students, featuring top facilities and the latest in educational technology. We choose some of the most enviable locations too – so you're always in the heart of the action.

↑ Committed staff and teachers

EF Staff and teachers are dedicated to ensuring you feel at home during your stay abroad. Whether you need friendly advice, extra language tips, help planning your weekend activities or directions downtown – the door to their office is always open for you.

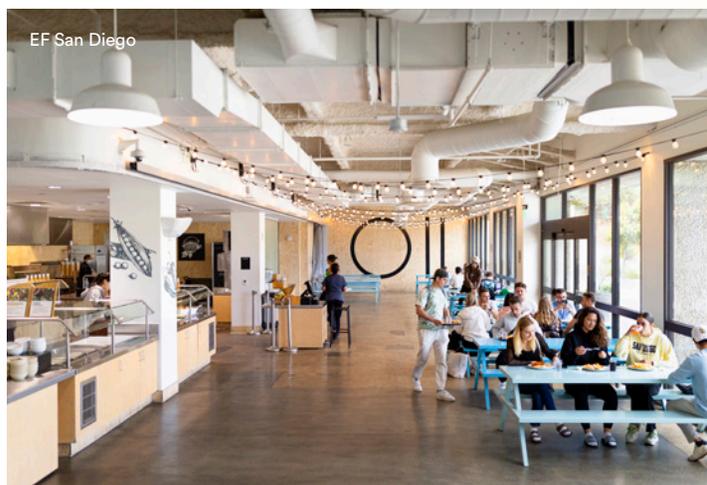

↑ Prime locations

From our beachside campuses in Brighton and Miami Beach to our unrivaled city center locations in London and Tokyo, every EF campus is situated in a top neighborhood so you can see your destination's famous sights with ease.

Crave Kitchen

Get a taste of local cuisine at your EF campus cafeteria, Crave Kitchen. A hot breakfast, lunch and dinner menu – developed by expert chefs – is prepared from fresh ingredients daily.

Latest technology

We've created apps and developed programs to enrich your learning experience. Technology-enhanced lessons foster interactive participation and class discussion – all so you make maximum progress in your language studies.

EF Malaga

EF San Diego

Top facilities

Enjoy the comforts of home during your experience abroad. Our campuses incorporate top facilities designed exclusively for EF students – from our private swimming pool in San Diego and Miami Beach to our private terrace in Barcelona.

Inspirational designs

Our team of designers enhances every school building's unique personality with modern interiors and unique accents – from our traditional campus in New York to our urban loft in Toronto and our Mediterranean villa in Malaga.

Living options

Live like a local while you're abroad with our range of accommodation options. From living with fellow EF students on campus, enjoying a centrally located residence, to immersing in daily life with a host family: your choice of accommodation will help you live the language.

EF Homestay

Immerse yourself in the daily life of your new host country by living in a private local home. You'll enrich your understanding of the culture, pick up expressions with greater ease and your accent will sound more authentic. Living with a friendly host, you'll benefit from constant interaction with the language, meaning you'll develop your verbal skills and general knowledge of the language quicker and more naturally. Our strong network of reliable hosts are carefully selected by experienced accommodation staff, and many have hosted EF students for many years – ensuring you get the authentic 'insider tips' related to your destination and have the best experience abroad.

EF Campus Living

Enhance the experience of studying alongside students from 100 countries by living with them onsite at your EF school. As a fully equipped home away from home, an EF Campus offers great onsite facilities with a full-service, student lounge and Wi-Fi Internet. EF Campus Living allows you to enjoy an academic lifestyle as well as interaction with students from all over the world.

EF Residence

Benefit from a truly international exchange of customs and cultures by living alongside other EF students from every corner of the globe. Offsite EF Residences offer top city locations within easy traveling distance to your EF Campus. Student living amenities including recreation lounges, kitchen facilities or an onsite cafeteria. You can relax knowing that EF supervision is available on-site to support you.

Apartment

Enjoy the independence of living alone or with fellow EF students in an apartment within easy reach of your campus. Offsite apartments provide an environment for students to unwind at the end of a busy day of lessons and exploring. Best suited for more independent students, EF Apartments often contain amenities such as laundry facilities, common lounge areas and courtyards available on-site to support you.

Action-packed schedule

Every EF school has an Activities Manager, who plans a weekly schedule of activities, day trips and weekend excursions.

New hobbies

Try something new and exciting. Learn how to surf in Brisbane or expand your knowledge of different cultures while exploring London's museums.

Local cuisine

There's nothing more memorable than tasting new flavors for the first time. We'll show you where to find the best local fare nearby.

Exciting events

Discover nearby events and mingle with the locals at festivals, concerts, celebrations and more – like London's Notting Hill Carnival or the Sonar Festival in Barcelona.

Travel breaks

Take a road trip with your new friends on the weekends or travel during your holiday breaks. Our campuses are placed conveniently near major transport hubs, making it easy to get out and explore far and wide.

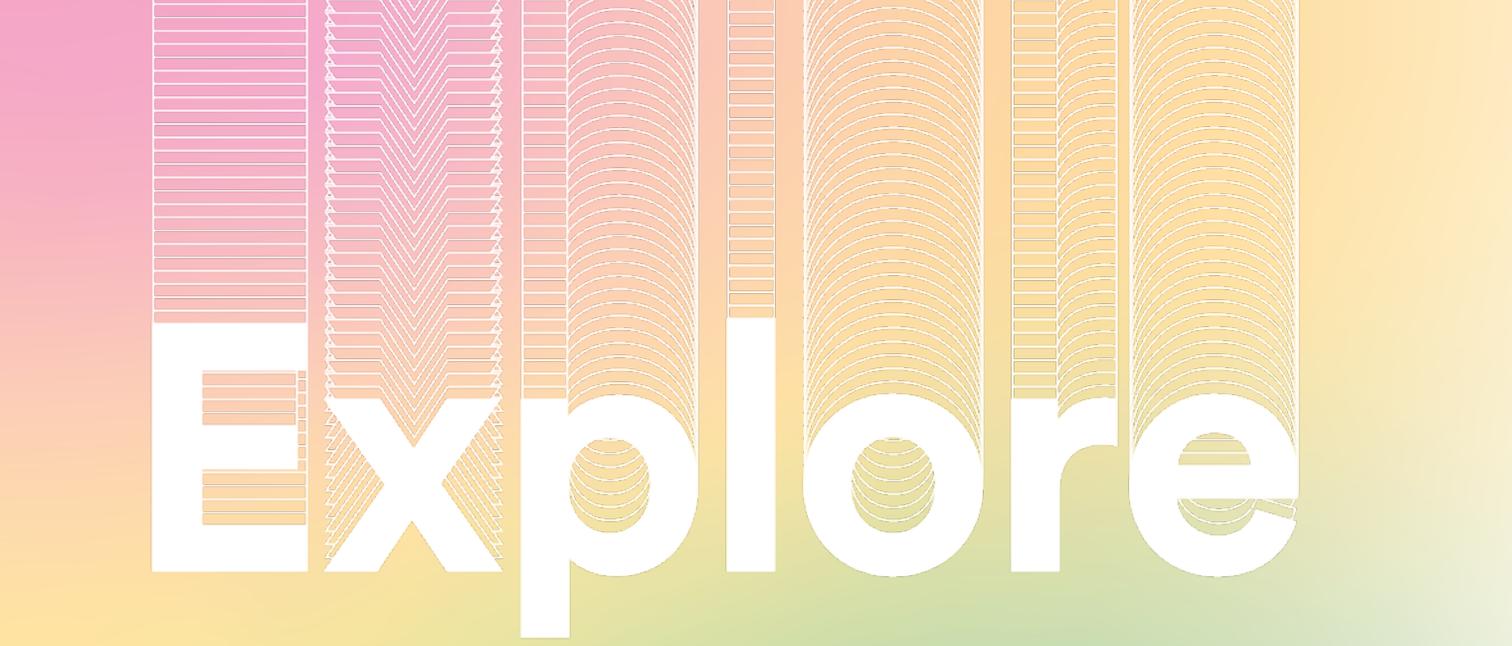

Expert guidance

From shopping and restaurants to theaters and museums, we can show you the best locations and insider secrets in your destination.

Our story

1965

EF is founded in Sweden by Bertil Hult. He brought a group of Swedish students to Brighton, England. The idea was simple – they would learn English while traveling on holiday.

1988

EF is the official Language School of the Seoul Summer Olympics, EF's first of many Olympic appointments.

2005

Our unique blended learning method is launched, going on to win various prestigious academic awards over the years.

2008

EF is the official supplier of language training services for the Beijing Summer Olympics.

1978

EF becomes truly global, establishing itself not only in Europe and North America, but also in Mexico and Japan.

2003

Hult International Business School is founded by EF and today is proudly recognized as the first triple-accredited business school in the U.S.

2009

The EF research Lab for Applied Language Learning is established at the University of Cambridge's Department of Theoretical and Applied Linguistics.

2010

The First Hult Prize takes place as a global competition that challenges students to solve the planet's most pressing issues through social entrepreneurship.

2018

EF acquires men's pro cycling team and becomes the Official Education Services Sponsor of PyeongChang Winter Olympics.

2022

EF becomes the title sponsor of our women's pro cycling team, proudly helping set an equal standard between women and men in professional cycling.

2015

The EF Global Classroom Foundation starts rebuilding a school in Nepal after a devastating earthquake shook the country.

2016

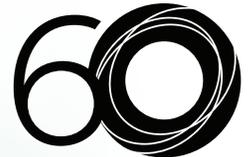

Providing English training to nearly one million Brazilians, EF is the official supplier of language training services for the Rio Summer Olympics.

2021

EF is the Official Partner for language training services for the Tokyo Summer Olympics.

2023

EF integrates "Life Skills" into its curriculum to help students develop the life and employability capabilities highlighted by the World Economic Forum.

CELEBRATING SIXTY YEARS

2025

EF turns 60! The commitment to opening the world through education is stronger than ever. EF is grateful to all students – past, present, and future – for joining the journey.
